THE FAMOUS
ALLIANCE,
NEBR.

W. V. Seal & Sons, the cabinet contractors, report a big business during the summer, and will have considerable work to finish up yet before winter.

The W. C. T. U. county convention which was held last Thursday at the residence of Mrs. E. M. Ferrald in Alliance was not very largely attended, but a splendid program was given and there was a good interest in the meeting.

Editor Benta of the Oshkosh Herald was visiting in Alliance the fore part of the week. He reports business good in the Garden county seat town.

Charley Poole, a brother of A. M. Poole, came up from Hyannis last week, where he has been clerking in a drug store, being a pharmacist. We are pleased to note that he is thinking of locating in Alliance.

Miss Carolyn Neidermyer arrived in Alliance Sunday morning to resume her duties as teacher in Central school. Miss Neidermyer has been doing institute work through the summer months.

Mrs. James E. Barge, of Central City, arrived in Alliance Sunday morning to visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Sweeney. She was accompanied home by Master Fred Sweeney.

Mrs. Edith Barker and children returned home the latter part of last week after an extended visit with relatives and friends in Portland and other coast points.

"Bill's Cafe" is a neat sign at 211 Box Butte Ave. E. Becker has resumed charge of his lunch counter at that place which he had leased for a while to John Coyle. The place was closed a few days the latter part of last week, during which time it was thoroughly renovated, painted, etc., and fixed up in ship-shape for the convenience and pleasure of the many customers which Bill always has when he runs a cafe in this city.

Miss Floy Roberts, who has been visiting in Billings the past week, returned home yesterday morning. She reports a very enjoyable time.

Gray and Guthrie, the busy insurance men, have moved their office from over the Alliance National bank to the large and spacious room next to the Bennett Piano Company. They have remodeled the interior and are very comfortably located.

Mrs. A. A. Cliffe of Hot Springs, S. D., was the guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Zehring, of this city, the latter part of last week.

Superintendent of Motive Power Roupe, and other officials arrived in Alliance last Tuesday morning. They are making a general inspection of the machine shops and car yards.

Prof. E. L. Meyer, principal of the Alliance High school, arrived last Thursday on his return from Peru, Nebr., where he had a pleasant visit with home folks.

Prof. Whitfield and Miss Glasgow were in Alliance last Friday on their way from Peru, to Hemingford, where the former is principal of the public school, and the latter a teacher.

"Geo. Wiltsey has moved his family to the Price building formerly occupied by Carl Lux's family, the latter now occupied by Mrs. H. H. Heath. Round-house Foreman Shoebarger's family will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Wiltsey."

Miss Mabel Bigelow went to Alliance last night, where she has accepted a position as primary teacher in the schools in that city. Her sister, Cleo, and brother, Ray, will go down Saturday night to attend school there the coming year.—Harrison Sun, Sept. 1.

Last week's Crawford Tribune has the following about a former Box Butte county family:

Mrs. Nellie Dietlein, of Alliance, visited her son, R. J. Dietlein, Tuesday. She was accompanied by Mr. Dietlein's little daughter, Marguerite, who is making her home with her grandparents. — Crawford Courier, Sept. 2.

George Clark, eight miles southwest of Alliance, who was kicked on the knee by a horse, August 5th, while in this city, is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Beck and daughter, Inez, spent Labor Day visiting in Deadwood, going there Sunday morning and returning Tuesday morning.

J. A. Lore, formerly county commissioner, stopped over in Alliance from Friday to Saturday last week on his way home from Scottsbluff, where he attended the reunion of old settlers' picnic.

R. C. Worley was in Alliance last Saturday, and informed The Herald that he and his mother will hereafter reside on his claim in Sheridan county, near Jess post office. He ordered his address changed from Hemingford to Jess.

J. C. McCorkle and L. Lowery deferred their trip to Denver, mentioned in last week's Herald, to Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. F. W. Lester and Mrs. Claud Lester entertained informally last Saturday evening in honor of Miss Pierson of Kansas City. Twenty-one young folks were present.

TRACK AND TRAIN

Conductor Heissenbuttel has the work train between Belmont and Girard.

Engineer Fitzpatrick left for Lincoln Tuesday morning to attend the state fair.

Fireman Craig came in Tuesday morning after a two weeks' stay in Edgemont.

Mrs. Fred Allen, who has been very sick for some time, is slowly recovering.

Fireman Hull went to Marsland Monday, where he will fire one of the helpers.

Round house Foreman Ed Nelson has resigned and will move with his family to Havelock.

Mrs. Robert Holden is in Alliance visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Regan.

Miss Alma Weidenhamer returned last Sunday from a visit with friends down on the south line.

Engineer and Mrs. Guy Miller left on No. 41 Monday morning for Omaha. They will be gone two weeks.

Fireman Harry Thurman, who has been in the hospital for some time, has developed a serious case of pneumonia.

Conductor C. D. Rider has gone to Iowa to visit his children and to rest and regain his strength after his recent illness.

Conductor Beach's work train, that has been working between Alliance and Seneca all summer, was pulled off Sept. 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee McFall are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine nine-pound boy last Saturday morning. Mrs. McFall is a daughter of Engineer Fred Allen. Mother and baby are both doing well. They will return to their ranch home the last of the month.

Mrs. W. A. Bennett and Miss Hazel returned last Saturday from a two months' vacation spent visiting in and near Kansas City.

The high wind on Tuesday evening blew a baggage car out onto the main line. When No. 46 pulled out they found it and brought it back to town.

Brakeman P. L. Stewart, commonly known as Scissors, is on the smoky end of the west local with Conductor Fred Campbell. Scissors says it is a hard graft.

B. Mahony of Denver came over Saturday. He is at the Rowland home. Mr. Mahony is settling the estate of his son, Fireman Mahony, who lost his life some time ago.

Mrs. Raycroft, wife of Master Mechanic Raycroft, will leave soon for a trip south, which will include Atlanta, Ga., Washington and other cities. She will be gone about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman, from Broken Bow, were in Alliance over Sunday, guests at the home of Engineer and Mrs. Wills. They came to see their cousin, Harry Thurman, who is in the hospital.

Mrs. Clyde Miller, wife of Conductor Miller, spent last week in Omaha. She went down to have a specialist examine her eyes. While there she met and visited with Mrs. Owens and Mrs. Robert Birney.

Machinist Jesse Morrison left Wednesday night for Lincoln, where he has secured a fine position in the round house. Mr. Morrison was a full-fledged machinist before he was of age and has made a success of his work. No one but a fine machinist could have succeeded in being transferred to Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Davis and Miss Daurice Davis came down from Sheridan last Thursday and remained until Tuesday of this week. They visited at the Davis and Kauffman homes. Mr. Davis' mother, who has been in Sheridan several months, came with them and will visit her son, George Davis, here until Thanksgiving, when she will return to her home at University Place.

CARD OF THANKS

The officers and stockholders of the Co-Operative Store wish to thank their many customers for the patronage given them in the past quarter. We shall endeavor to merit a continuance and increase of the same.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

A serious runaway accident occurred on Box Butte avenue last evening. Fred Countryman had been moving to town during the day and he and his son, Harley, were driving along in a spring wagon when one of the bolts in one side of the tongue came out and the team started to run. Both were thrown out of the wagon. In falling Harley's right leg was broken in two places below the knee. Fred held on to the team which dragged him quite a distance and bruised him up severely, but without breaking any bones. The injured boy was taken to their new home on Niobrara avenue, and his injuries attended to. He has suffered severely but at this writing is resting as comfortable as can be expected. This accident comes as a severe blow to Mr. and Mrs. Countryman and their family, and they have the sincere sympathy of the people of this city.

Reciprocity is the Basis of this Store's Prosperity

BUSINESS PROSPERITY can come to a store only if it is upright and honest in its dealings with the public. If it makes statements in its advertising which it cannot back up with merchandise, if it makes promises it does not or will not fulfill, then it will never enjoy Business Prosperity in the fullest sense of the word. We make no statements we will not back up, or promises we cannot fulfill; therefore your patronage is invited, and in justice to yourself you cannot withhold
